2. Assign papers to reviewers (A)

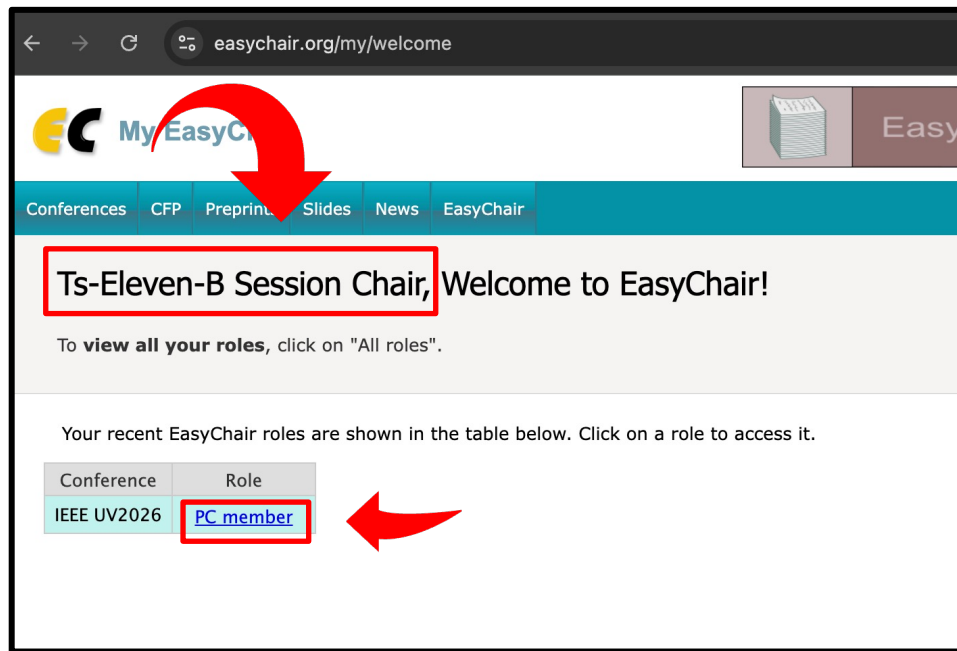

- Please ask your reviewers to follow instructions from IEEE UV2026 Paper Review Instructions on EasyChair to create an EasyChair account of their own.
- If your reviewers don't have access to the EasyChair platform, please ask your session assistants to send an electronic copy of the paper and an offline review form to your reviewers. In this way, your reviewers will still be able to submit their comments through the form.

2. Assign papers to reviewers (B)

After logging into EasyChair using your session chair account through Log in

You will see the interface below; Now click “PC (Program Committee) member”

Please ensure that your display name matches the Session you are responsible for.

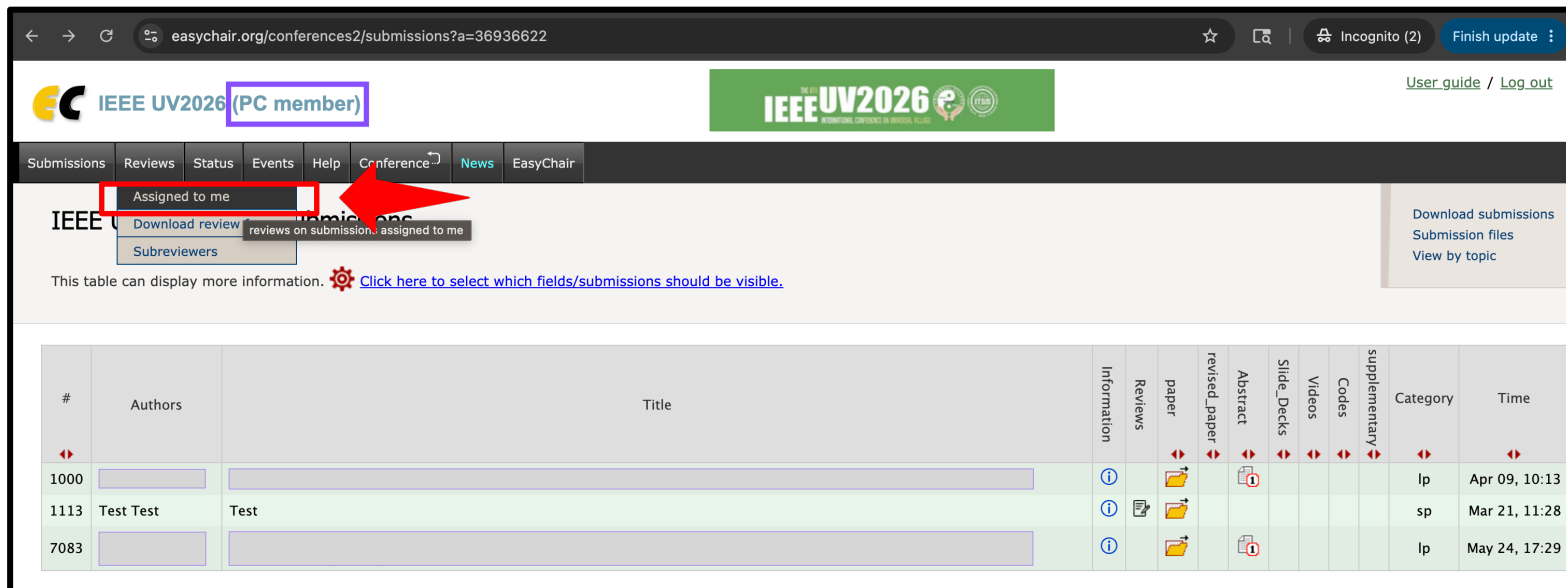

The screenshot shows the EasyChair user interface. The browser address bar displays `easychair.org/my/welcome`. The page header includes the EasyChair logo and a navigation menu with links: Conferences, CFP, Preprints, Slides, News, and EasyChair. The main content area features a welcome message: "Ts-Eleven-B Session Chair, Welcome to EasyChair!". Below this, a note states: "To view all your roles, click on 'All roles'." Further down, a message says: "Your recent EasyChair roles are shown in the table below. Click on a role to access it." A table with two columns, "Conference" and "Role", lists the user's roles. The first row shows the conference "IEEE UV2026" and the role "PC member". A red box highlights the "PC member" link, and a red arrow points to it from the left.
